

The PRCA DARE Awards strive to seek out and reward the very best PR and communications professionals across the UK, decided by a panel of highly respected industry experts across six regions. The awards uncover impeccable talent and celebrate PR professionals far and wide, and are your chance to display and celebrate your successes over the last year, being recognised by the world's largest PR and communications professional body.

- Promote the industry – We're a not-for-profit, so all the profits from our awards are invested back into our industry to help teams and individuals maximise the value they deliver to clients and organisations.
- Encourage your team – These awards are a great platform to shine the limelight on your team's fantastic work and reward every member.
- Expand your network – Win new business and open opportunities for new clientele by rubbing shoulders with award-winning businesses.

ELIGIBILITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

All entries that are made into the Campaign Award Categories must be focused on work carried out between the 20th March 2024 and 24th March 2025 (the closing date). A substantial amount of the campaign work must have occurred during this time, but the campaign does not need to have been started or completed during the eligibility period.

Please ensure that for categories recognising the performance of teams or consultancies, financial figures should relate to your most recent financial year.

Please be aware that campaign category entries do not have to relate to a specific campaign or project but can be a component of on-going work or a combination of activities.

Judges will assume that campaigns using celebrities or other associations have been paid for their involvement unless stipulated otherwise.

YOUR ENTRY

The PRCA DARE Awards encourages you to be as creative as you wish, as there is no 'official' format that you must use for your Award entry. Your written entry must be no more than 1,000 words, size 10 font and a maximum of 4 sides of A4. However, we would advise that you follow the judging criteria on page 3.

Mandatory:

- The company logo must be uploaded alongside your entry. Images can also be included in the body of your entry to support your case.
- The campaign budget must be stated. When PR is part of an integrated campaign, please state the PR budget. The approximate campaign budget must be clear.
- If the campaign is integrated, when demonstrating results please state the PRs involvement and outline the activity of the other marketing disciplines.
- Please ensure that for categories recognising the performance of teams or consultancies, financial figures should relate to your most recent financial year.

Supporting Materials (Optional):

Supporting documentation such as press cuttings and video/URL links are optional – all relevant information should be included in your main entry. If choosing to include a video, it must not run for longer than 4 minutes and be uploaded to our entry website alongside your entry. Please do remember that supporting documentation will only be consulted where judges are unable to distinguish between two entries.

TIPS AND TRICKS TO WIN

1. FOLLOW THE GUIDELINES

Read the entry guide and read it again! The judges will stick closely to the criteria set out in the guide and so please read it carefully to give you the best start in the judging process, this does include the word count!

2. RESULTS

Results and effectiveness from a whole segment of the marking criteria, meaning if you do not show the judges clear measurement and evaluation, you could be missing a chance of winning!

3. CHOOSE WISELY

The variety, depth, and breadth of the PR industry alongside the large range of award categories to choose from means there will always be a slight overlap. Choose the category wisely to ensure you're entering the best possible choice for you.

4. BE HONEST

Whether it's campaign costs, over-inflated measurements and results, or any other use of false information, the judges will be able to notice immediately! Don't waste the opportunity to have a winning entry by providing the judges with an unrealistic submission.

5. PLAN, PLAN, PLAN

Think how many other entries you may be up against and know that a last-minute entry may not be the best path to a win. A good entry that has sufficient time, thought, and energy put in will stand out from the other submissions.

6. TRY NOT TO ASSUME

Despite the judges being industry experts in their sector, they may not have in depth knowledge of your entry. This being said, aim to provide as much detail as you can, keeping your entry clear from the start for the judges.

7. STAND OUT AND BE CREATIVE

Give the judges something interactive to look at and engage with to help them better understand your entry. Whether that's through the use of language, image or video, bring your entry to life by using different mediums.

TEAM CULTURE AND COMMUNITY AWARD (OPEN TO AGENCIES AND IN-HOUSE TEAMS ALIKE)

Businesses aren't just money-making enterprises, they're places people come together, pool resources and – hopefully – make a difference in the world. In recent years, institutions have come to terms with a growing need for discussion around mental health, around inclusiveness, around the gender pay gap and a number of social issues.

A Culture and Community Award highlights the agencies and in-house teams who are going beyond serving their clients and customers. They're serving their people and the societies they're part of and trying to make a difference.

To celebrate and recognise agencies and in-house teams leading the way in fostering positive workplace cultures and community impact, this category is free to enter for PRCA members. For non-members, the entry fee has been set at a reduced rate of £50+VAT.

You can find the judging criteria for this award on page 3.
